

Polypropylene Chamber Riser for Underground Drainage

CD U455

Product Overview

The CD U455 is a 450mm dia chamber riser for underground drainage, made from recycled polypropylene and supplied with joint seal. It is compliant to relevant clauses of BS EN13598-1:2010, and total depth can be up to 1.2m with further risers and matching CD U453 chamber base.

Key features

- | | |
|--|--|
|  Compliant to relevant clauses of BS EN13598-1:2010 and Sewers for Adoption, 7th Edition |  Total depth can be up to 1.2m using further CD 455 risers with matching CD U453 chamber base |
|  Plastic, lightweight, non-rusting design |  Made from recycled material |
|  Supplied with joint seal |  Range of matching manhole covers available to suit most applications |

Product information

- Material: Polypropylene Grade AP9, EPDM Rubber
- Overall width: 500 dia; height (overall): 340 mm; height (rise): 300 mm
- Weight: 3.5 kgs
- Load rating: Up to B125 (12.5 tonnes) when used with appropriate risers and manhole cover and installed to guidelines (available separately, or supplied with CD U453)